CIRCULAR LETTER.

Beloved Brethren and Sisters in Christ, if one so unworthy as I feel to be can claim the name of Brother and Sister:—

According to the voice of our last Association perhaps you will expect a Circular address from us to be attached to our next minutes. The one appointed knows unless he is aided by the Divine Spirit of God, that his attempts to write will be vain and will not give any comfort or consolation to the children of God; for I have long since learned that in my flesh dwelleth no good thing, and how to perform that which is good I find not; and if I have ever known any thing in Divine things, it has been revealed through the operation of the power of God on my heart, and bringing me into captivity unto the obedience of Christ. In attempting to write a Circular address, I am at a loss to know where to commence, as there are many subjects that are presented to my mind, and not knowing if I take up any one, whether it will be of any comfort or consolation to the children of God or to His honor and glory. I will pen down a passage of Scripture as a foundation to write upon, which may be found by referring to 2nd Cor. 1: 10. The Apostle Paul in writing his epistles was inspired of God to write, and his writings gave comfort and consolation to the children of God, in that age of the world, and have from then till now, and will forever. "Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver; in whom we trust he will yet deliver us." By reading the 9th verse we can understand who it was that delivered us from so great a death; for he says: "But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead." Every one who has been quickened into Divine life has felt the sentence of death in himself, being killed to the love and practice of sin. Sin is the cause of this death that has taken place in the soul; for we read in the Scriptures of Divine truth, that the wages of sin is death, but thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has delivered us from so great a death. All that have been brought to a saving knowledge of the truth, as it is in Jesus, know that it was the power of God that delivered them from so great a death. They saw themselves dead in trespasses and in sins, but God who is rich in mercy hath, for His great love wherewith He loved us, even when we were dead in sins, quickened us together with Christ; Eph. 2nd. "By grace are ye saved." Oh, what horror and pain the guilty soul is in, when the sentence of death is passed upon it. They believe that the sentence of death is just, because they know that they are original sinners, and that they have been sinners all their lives, and have never done one good deed, yet they beg for mercy to be extended to their guilty consciences. "Ten thousand talents in debt and not a farthing to pay, and you might as well try to stop the wind from blowing, as to try to stop sinners from praying when they are enabled by the power of God to see their lost and helpless condition; yes, helpless as a little infant; helpless as the dead, as to any power of their own to raise themselves out of this dead condition which they are in by reason of sin and transgression. Jonah, after he was delivered out of the whale, exclaimed and said: "Salvation is of the Lord," which means deliverance, and not only Jonah, but all that have been, or ever will be, quickened into Divine life. There is but one way whereby sinners can be saved, and that is by the power of God, working upon the dead faculties of the soul, bringing them into captivity unto the obedience of Christ. The whole tenure of the Scriptures, from the first part of Genesis, down to the end of Revelation, if rightly understood, will substantiate the doctrine of salvation by grace.—

The natural man or woman don't believe this doctrine, because it is a mystery to them; neither do they love it, for the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, and because of this enmity that is in their hearts, is why it is that there is so much said against the doctrine of salvation by grace. "The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."—None, but those who have been taught by the Spirit of God, know how it is that the dead are raised to life.—"Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver, in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us." The Apostle Paul, before he was converted, persecuted the Church of Christ, which we believe were Baptists. The Apostle Paul was called Saul before he was converted. I know that my writings are not in connection with the subject that I have taken for a foundation, but I want the readers of this letter to read Acts; 8, 9. There you will find that Saul was persecuting the Saints with the same wicked spirit that they are persecuting the Baptists with now. All other sects are in battle-array against the Baptists, and are trying to unite against the doctrine of Christ and the Apostles.—This is plain to be seen by all who have been delivered from under the reign and dominion of sin, for before they were delivered they were possessed of the same spirit that Saul was. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord will deliver them out of them all. And now in conclusion, dear brethren and sisters, "let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and run with patience the race set before us, looking unto Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith.

JAMES H. BOROUGHS.

CIRCULAR LETTER FOR 1877.

It will be expected that one who feels his weakness will furnish the Brethren with a letter at this Session, and we are certain that none but those that have seen their weakness in themselves can describe it, or can tell anything true about the strength of true convicting grace, or of the weakness the Apostle Paul speaks of when he says: "When I am weak, then I am strong." In Zephaniah, 3d chap. and 12th verse we find these words: "I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord." In the first place, we see that there is some one that can leave or has a right to them that he leaves; for he says they shall trust in the name of the Lord, as we would say if we were certain of a thing being done; but we may be mistaken in our judgement, but the character of the one speaking by the Prophet, is not that he is mistaken about anything, for he is the maker of all things.

Then, dear brethren, are we poor? If so, then the promise is to the poor in spirit. Blessed are the poor in spirit, says Christ. His poverty is a knowledge of our weakness in ourselves. Tho' a man may have all the wealth of a nation at his command, if he has been changed in heart, he is poor in spirit, and will make one of those left in the midst. The heir, as long as he is a child, differeth not from a servant, tho' he be Lord of all, but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the Father. To see a child that is willing to obey his father, is to see a poor one in himself; he claims nothing as his own, but he has all confidence in his father, and is willing to wait until he comes of age, for he is sure the inheritance is safer in the hands of his father than it would be in his.

Poor and afflicted ones, hear what the Saviour says: "I go to prepare a place for you." Can we believe that it is for us that these mansions are prepared? O, brethren! view the workmanship of the Creator, and think how perfectly his works harmonize, and then think of the mansions prepared for his bride, his love, his wife; all names of choice, which show love and affection. Hear him say: "I have loved thee with an everlasting love, and with loving kindness have I drawn thee." Who would not be poor in spirit under these considerations? All are yours and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's. Says one, this is true; but it only suits the poor in spirit and the afflicted; I fear I am not one of them. Well, what more evidence do you want of your poverty, if you know at all times that you were an heir of this great inheritance, no doubt about it, do you think you would be as poor in spirit as you are? Blessed are the poor in spirit. The world says that we are such a set of fools, that they pity us and the world of mankind. If the Baptist is the only church, and that if it is true that God has the entire control of the matter, they want nothing to do with such faith as this. These characters are not poor in spirit, though they may be poor as to the things of time. The Armenian professor says the same thing of us. You see then that there is an afflicted and poor people somewhere, and the Baptists are the only people that I see of late that are willing to be governed by the time appointed of the Father. When I say Baptist, I mean the Primitive or Predestinarian Baptist. Then if we feel poor in spirit, the promise is ours. When men shall speak all manner of evil against us, falsely, we are commanded to rejoice. Evils spoken against us must be false, or we cannot rejoice.

Let us for a few moments think of the sufferings of the blessed Saviour, and then compare our sufferings, afflictions, crosses and losses and every thing that mars our peace, and see how far below him we are.

We are informed, when he made his appearance into the world, that there was no room in the inn for him; he spent his first night with beasts. Think of this, dear brethren, when we are poor and afflicted. Then see the spite of the wicked king against him; hear the cries of mothers weeping over their children, caused by the rage of that wicked spirit, in trying to defeat the purposes of God. This circumstance of itself is sufficient, if the scales were off of the eyes of the Armenian, to convince him that the devil with all his crew combined, cannot destroy one of these afflicted and poor people, that trust in the name of the Lord. Then see him before the rulers, and view the smiting with their cruel hands, and at last to drive the rugged nails through his tender feet and hands, and then to place him between the heavens and the earth, as a fit subject for neither.

Now, dear brethren and sisters, this is an evidence of his everlasting love to these poor and afflicted people that trust in the name of the Lord. My opinion is, if we were to try and sum up our distresses of every kind, it would only prove that these light afflictions, as the Apostle Paul says, are for a moment, and worketh out for us a more exceeding and eternal weight of glory if we are included in that number that is spoken of in scripture, in these words: "All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

If I were to undertake to describe the riches that these afflicted and poor people will inherit at the time appointed of the father, I could not say more than I have said.—All are yours and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's. Sufficient to satisfy the believer in the Lord of Israel. This makes the believer a king and priest. All are yours,—all the joys that those mansions will afford, and you may think them complete from the character of the one that has gone to prepare them.

In conclusion, let us see if we have any evidence of our trusting in the name of the Lord.

Do we love the Lord, is a question that Christians ask themselves often? If so, then we trust in his name. We endeavor to keep his commandments, though we put no confidence in our acts, as to our salvation, but simply do these things because we love to obey our Father, and we believe them to be right. Christ says, "Take my yoke upon you and lean upon me, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light." If we have to leave off some of the things of this world for Christ and his cause, it is easy done when trusting in the name of the Lord, believing that the things of this world are not worthy to be compared with those mansions prepared for them that love the Lord; for them that are the called according to his purpose.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

THE MINISTERS AND MESSENGERS COMPOSING THE ABBOTT'S CREEK
UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION OF THE PRIMITIVE FAITH AND ORDER, TO THE SEVERAL CHURCHES THEY REPRESENT:

Dear Brethren and Sisters:

According to our custom you will perhaps be looking for a Circular Address from us, though the one appointed to write on this occasion feels his weakness. We will cite you to the following portion of God's Word for a starting point:

"We love Him because He first loved us." 1 John, 4th chapter and 19th verse. Here the apostle is speaking of that great love wherewith he loved us, not that we loved him but he loved us before all worlds; if he had not loved us before the world began we would not love him now. What great love the Father had for us poor sin-defiled creatures that he should give up his only begotten son for us! He saw us ruined in the fall, he saw us in our grave and in our blood, and God sent his son into the world to redeem all mankind; if so, all will be redeemed. The Armenians say, that Christ died for all men alike; if so, all will be saved alike. He purchased a common salvation for all men, but a special one for the believer. The Word of God teaches us that God's people is a chosen people, chosen in Christ Jesus before the foundation of the world, according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Ephesians, 1st chapter and 4th verse. The us, spoken of in this text, means all of God's people, the heirs of salvation, the redeemed of the Lord, the saints of the most high. God loved his people before they were created; God saw his people low sunk, and also loved them with an everlasting love. He saved them in his purpose before he created man. According to the Scripture, who hath saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purposes and grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. Now as he saw them and loved them, and they dead in sin and no power to extricate themselves from under the curse of the law and bring themselves into favor with God, there must be a plan laid to rescue the bride; it must be a sinless one that is perfect, for a sinful creature could not atone for sin, for justice called for death and blood; for man had become an offender of God's holy law. Now the son agrees in a covenant of grace with the Father before all worlds, to come into this world of sin and sorrow to suffer, bleed and die, to redeem his bride from her lost and ruined condition ; he came at the time appointed of the father : he says he came not to do his own will but the will of him that sent him. Now what was his errand into this world ? Was it not to save God's elect ? Of course that is what he came for. Did he accomplish his work ? He cried on the cross : " It is finished," and gave up the ghost. Does he work in vain, as the Armenian says ? for they say that after he has been nailed to the cross, and his side pierced and he has shed his precious blood to redeem his people, that the devil can cheat him out of some of them, but he does not teach us so. He says, " my sheep hear my voice and I know them, and they follow me."

Now in the atonement Christ has made full satisfaction ; he pays the debt for his bride, he has satisfied every demand, he is mediator between an offended God and offending man. Now if his bride must be saved by works of righteousness of their own, this atonement is not complete ; but the atonement is complete in every department ; Jesus has borne our sins in his own body ; justice no more demands payment of the Church, for Jesus has paid all her debt. Is it reasonable that he would redeem a bride for himself and pay her debt and then require her to pay it again ? We think not. Neither does he teach his people to believe such things. What great things did our adorable Saviour suffer, even from the manger to the cross : He was scoffed at, persecuted and all manner of evil spoken against him. Wicked men would have taken him long before they did, but all must be fulfilled. But when he had finished his course, then he was taken before wicked rulers and there condemned to die. He was nailed to the tree, his side was pierced, he shed his precious blood for the remission of sins : in this the atonement was complete. Now a redemption made by a perfect being is also a perfect redemption : so he will save all his chosen, not one shall be left behind. It is great ignorance to talk about falling from grace, as some have it. Is it not unreasonable that Jesus would leave the shining courts above and come into this world of sin and wickedness, take upon himself the form of a servant, bleed and die to redeem his people and not make the redemption complete ? We know that it is said, and that by very many, that he will save them if they will do right, but if they will not do right, he will not save them. Brethren, this is leaving the matter with the creature where it does not belong. We know it is right that we should do the very best that we can; we should lead a moral life, live honest in the sight of all men, and as much as lieth in us live peaceably with all men. Brethren, we should attend unto all those good works that accompany sound doctrine; our fruit should be unto holiness; we should let our light so shine before men that others seeing our good works may glorify our Father which is in Heaven. Brethren, these things are required of us, but after we have done all that is required, we are not to be saved for our good works, we are only unprofitable servants, saved by grace and grace alone. By grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves. it is the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast.

Brethren, in conclusion, behold what great love the Father hath bestowed upon us and that before we loved him, (we love him because he first loved us). What manner of persons ought we to be, forbearing one another in love, striving to keep the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace; we should bear each other's burdens; we have nothing here of which we can boast; every blessing we receive comes from our heavenly Father; they are given us by way of mercy; we should let brotherly love continue. How precious is that love which is shed abroad in the heart by the Holy Ghost; it is a love that the world cannot give, the world cannot take it away; its a love that the world knows nothing about.

Finally, my brethren, may that love abound amongst you all and may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. AMEN.

WM. F. TROGDON.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

Beloved brethren, sisters and friends of truth, you will look for something from my hand in the shape of a letter. My mind has been for some time thinking of this task or duty.

We learn that they that feared the Lord oft spake one to another, in days past and gone. We think the same spirit is yet in those that fear the Lord, now. The question with me is and has been, do I fear the Lord, or is my fear of some other sort. There is such a thing as a slavish fear, that works death. My opinion is that all fear, when they see his power manifest,—say in the thunder storm, or in the drouth; but you see some of the most profane men, after this is removed, standing up and taking the name of this wonder-working God, in their lips, in vain. This shows that they do not fear Him as those in past days, that spake one to another. Then there is another class of men that stands up in the midst of large assemblies, declaring that the creator of all things is trying to save this people, that he has given everything that they ever had or ever will have, as a blessing, and that the stubborn heart will stand the spirit that is sent from the God of Israel, and the devil will take them in spite of the God of Israel, after he has done all for them that he can or will.

Now, dear brethren, is this the class of men that fears the Lord? David in the 22nd chapter and 2nd verse of 2nd Samuel, says, "The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer." Now if God fails to save, who can. 31st chapter Jeremiah, 11th verse: "For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he." Brethren, do we believe that the Lord will do his pleasure? If we do, and believe that he is a God of power over all other powers, then we are sure to fear him. Then, if we believe that he will deliver the needy, we cannot but love him, for all of the children are needy,—feel so at least, for they are in a world of danger. We don't mean that they are in danger of eternal banishment, but in danger of the snares of the wicked one, while on earth; therefore, this admonition, "be ye wise as serpents and harmless as doves."

We believe the Old and New Testament to be the will of God, and that to acquaint ourselves with them is our duty; we also believe that there is not the least clash in them, when properly understood. And they teach that God is a sovereign, and that he is of one mind. If this is true, where is the doctrine that he is beseeching poor man to-day to come to him, and to-morrow sends him to hell?

Do we fear the Lord? if so, then we are willing to give him the entire rule of everything, even to keep us from harm while we sleep; and if he calls us to go through the trials of affliction, famine, peril or sword, we fear to disobey him.

They that fear the Lord speak oft one to another. Now, brethren, the question may be, what shall we say to each other? When children meet to talk together, in nature, and have had a large estate given them by will, it is reasonable to suppose that they will speak something of the will, and try to learn something of the one that has executed this will. So, my dear brethren, if we are in possession of a will that gives eternal life, joy, peace, plenty and the best home that can be, do we not love to talk about the author of this will? Would it be strange to see one of these heirs asking, what wilt thou have me to do, and telling others of the same family what their father told them to do? In this way, go ye into all the world and preach the gospel, &c.

Now, in conclusion, let me say to you, that Paul was a good teacher; his instruction on duty is better than your writers can be. Let us search the Scriptures; and especially 3rd chapter of Paul's 2nd letter to Timothy. You may find some reasons in it for my speaking as I have. Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of me. In the will of the Father, the heirs right is secured until changed by law.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

Beloved Brethren :

Being appointed at your last session to write a Circular Address, I have been for some time at a loss for a subject. Finally my mind has settled on the following: Job 9th chapter and 2nd verse: "I know it is so of a truth: but how shall man be just with God?" The assertion that God will not cast away a perfect man, Job acknowledges to be true; but where can that perfect man be found among all the sinful sons of Adam? It is clear that Bildad only looked at the outward appearance, and concludes that a man is justified by his strict observance of the law. This is the feeling of every unrenowned heart, full of vanity, that we must do something meritorious before we can expect to be happy hereafter; and while in an unquickened state, they do not question their ability to do all that is necessary to secure the salvation of their souls, by which superabundance of good work, they expect to procure a higher place, and more stars in their crowns. But when we have learned in truth and in deed, that man is a depraved being, from the corrupt foundation from whose heart nothing good can flow, while God requires perfect holiness, we shall then ask, with Job, in anxious wonder, how shall man be just with God?

But where shall wisdom be found, and where is the place of understanding? Man knoweth not the price thereof, neither is it found in the land of the living. The depth saith it is not with me, and the sea saith it is not with me. "It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof." Job 25th chapter and 12th, 13th and 14th verses. Had not the Lord revealed unto his people this glorious and wonderful plan of salvation, it never would have entered in the mind of any of Adam's fallen race. God has so arranged it as to meet all the needs of his people, and secure all the glory and praise to himself. To ascertain the dignity of the Supreme administration, yet rescue his people from utter destruction, this admirable purpose was formed, and in the fullness of time executed. The second portion of the ever blessed Trinity, unites the human to the divine nature, submits himself to the obligations of his people, and becomes responsible for all their guilt, and in this capacity he performs obedience and undergoes the sentence of death, makes a full expiation of their sins and establishes their title to eternal life, by which means the law is satisfied, justice is magnified, and the richest grace exercised. Man enjoys a great salvation, not to the discredit of any, but to the unspeakable glory of all the divine attributes.

Here brethren, is the foundation stone laid in Zion, as is said by Isaiah, the prophet, and is expressed by the Apostle Paul: "Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption of Christ Jesus, whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, for the redemption of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness, that he might be just and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith," Romans 3rd chapter, 24th to 27th verses. What shall we then say that Abraham, our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof the glory, but not before God, for what saith the Scriptures: "Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness." Now to him that worketh, is the reward, not reckoned of grace, but of debt; but to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Hence we see, brethren, that justification is the work of God from beginning to the ending. Again, what saith the Apostle: "Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called, and whom he called he also justified, and whom he justified, them he also glorified." Hence, we see that the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we are glad. Now, brethren, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature, old things are passed away, behold all things are become new. The branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches, he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. For without me ye can do nothing. Herein is my father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples, If any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his; but the fruits of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Against such there is no law. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one for another. Love is the leading characteristic of all the justified sons and daughters of God, and he that dwells in love, dwells in God; for God is love. Love worketh no ill to his neighbors. Brethren, let your lamps be trimmed and burning, as ye are traveling through this wilderness world, and be ready at all times to give a reason of the hope that is in you; bearing in mind that he who hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in manner of conversation, because it is written: "Be ye holy, for I am holy, and if ye call on the Father, who, without respect of persons, judgeth according to every man's work; pass the time of your beginning here in fear, for as much as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation, received by tradition from your fathers. May the Lord bless us and give us an assurance that we stand completely justified in the righteousness of our blessed Redeemer. Amen.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

Beloved Brethren and Sisters composing the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association :

"I am the one that was appointed at our last Association, to write the Circular Address, but I feel incapable, and unless I am aided by the Spirit of God, I will not write anything that will comfort the children of God. My mind has settled on the following : Luke 2nd chapter and 14th verse : "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men." There has nothing ever occurred on earth of more importance to the children of men than the personal appearance (in the flesh) of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Had he appeared on earth in the God-head, the children of men could not have borne the revelation and could not have been benefited by his personal ministry ; neither could he have been touched with the feeling of our infirmities, nor have offered himself a sacrifice for our sins. His manifestation in the flesh was essential to the great object of his advent, and no wonder the heavenly host descended to announce his coming to the shepherds, and sang glory to God, &c. The divinity did not become humanity, and the humanity did not become divinity, but the two were so united as to constitute but one glorious Mediator. Dear brethren, we can form no idea of the natural distance between God and man, but it is enough for us to know that the whole space is filled up by the Prince of Peace. Christ took upon him the form of a man, yet he was free from all sin, and guile was not found in his mouth. Notwithstanding his appearance in Bethlehem the angels descended from heaven to publish the good tidings to the children of men, "for unto you is born, this day (gospel day) in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord," Luke 2nd chapter, 11th verse. Brethren, there was no human agency brought to bear in that matter, but the angels of the Lord came upon them, and they were sore afraid ; and, my dear brethren, I think that I have been made afraid, and your experiences tell you, all of a time, that you were afraid, "for it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Hebrews 10th chapter and 31st verse. Therefore should we not "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints," Jude, part of 3rd verse. Brethren, when he appeared among men, the order was given in heaven that all the angels of God should worship him: Hebrews 1st chapter 6th verse. This example was followed by the wise men on the earth, not wise by the wisdom of this world, nor were they made wise by the learning of catechised books which are taught by the modern institutions, but they were made wise by the angels of the Lord which came upon the shepherds that were keeping watch over the flock by night. This subject shows to my mind that all of God's people have their time of night, and nothing but the appearing of the angels unto God's poor people can bring that light which shines into our hearts; but the angel said unto them, "fear not," therefore let us sing with the angels, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace, good will toward men." Hence we see his glory as seen in the works of creation, and in the language of the Psalmist David, 19th chapter, 1st verse: "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth his handy work." God knew all of his sheep before the world was, and rightly arranged all things, and when the time fully comes he will bring all things to light. Paul in 2nd Corinthians, 5th chapter 1st verse: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." So it seems to me that if the doctrines of this day are true, the house in heaven may never be completed; for if it is possible that man can so resist the spirit as to cause it to take its everlasting flight as is taught by the orders of to-day, then the building that Paul refers to in the text, would not be fitly framed together, but some part of the building would resist, and a post, sill or brace would be missing, and that building of God would not be completed; therefore, it is dangerous, in my opinion, to hold the idea that God is not able to complete that house not made with hands without the puny arm of man's help. Let us see what Paul says to that: See Romans, 9th chapter, 20th verse: "Nay, but O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, 'why hast thou made me thus?'" No, dear brethren, the time will come when he will gather his elect (from the nations of the earth) home to that building that is not made with hands. So we must conclude that our peace flows from the reconciling blood of Jesus. Nothing else could satisfy the claim of Divine justice and procure pardon for the penitent believer. "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be Spiritually minded is life and peace," Romans, 8th chapter, 6th verse. Where shall we find peace? "for he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy." Romans, 9th chapter, 15th and 16th verses. So you see, brethren, that we are not to find peace in human work, for in the 31st and 32nd verses of the above chapter we see that "Israel which followed after the law of righteousness hath not attained to the law of righteousness, wherefore because they sought it not by faith," (which is the gift of God). Hence, we see, brethren, in Revelations, 21st chapter, 27th verse: "And there shall in nowise enter into it (the city) anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie, but they (the elect) which are writte[n] in the Lamb's book of life." For you see in the 20th chapter and 15th verse of Revelation: "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Our peace cannot be found in the works of man, but our peace is found in the good will toward men, &c. That was given "in hope of eternal life which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began," Titus, 1st chapter, 2nd verse.

Brethren, may we all have the divine light to shine into our hearts to keep us from the evils of this world. May the goodness of God keep us close to his cross and fill our souls with love and praise to God, and love for one another, is my prayer to that great God for his good will toward men. Amen.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

It will be expected of me to write something for your Minutes ; and as I write, my desire is not to present anything that will cause any one of the dear brethren and sisters to stumble.

The Psalmist David, tells us in 76th Psalm, 1st and 2nd verses : " In Judah is God known ; his name is great in Israel ; in Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. Now, dear brethren and sisters have we some faint view of the truth of this first sentence. " In Judah is God known." We are satisfied that he is not known in the sense that David wishes to show, everywhere, that is in the forgiveness of our sins. He is not known in this sense in Babylon, or among his enemies. Now do we the Baptists know, that it is in Judah, that the king of kings and Lord of Lords is known. If so, then we are the people that know the joyful sound. The evidence of which each one of you have in your breast, that learning or the wisdom of this world did not give and cannot take away. His name is great in Israel : If we know him we know something of the great deliverance from under bondage of that great monster the devil, and this makes each and every child rejoice, and say his name is great, and he is our maker, our preserver and redeemer ; claiming no merit of our own, but all possible praise is given to God who has given us the victory, and we are made to cry, Aba Father ! Then they can love and serve him in meetings and say his and their dwelling place is in Zion.

Now for some of the evidences that we are to show to the world that we have been with Jesus, and that we know some of the things that David spake : 1st. Do we love to meet the brethren and fulfill this command ; forsake not the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is. 2nd. Are we willing to help the poor saints, and to hold up the hands of our ministers, keeping them from the burdens of this life, that they may give themselves to the work of the ministry, so that we may not be guilty of muzzling the ox that treadeth out the corn. We are, if we are not mistaken, believers in duty, not making christians but helping them, and show that we are alive and not sleeping. This is our view as to some of the duties as to this life ; and when we have discharged these duties as best we can, we may expect calm and quiet minds ; but are we not looking after a more lasting joy and are we not enquiring for the way. If so, the scriptures are our guide. For search the scriptures, in them ye think you have eternal life and they are they which testify of me. Paul to the Romans 12th chapter, 12th and 13th verses, for our encouragement says : “ Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulations, continuing instant in prayer, distributing to the necessities of saints, etc. Now, dear brethren, these admonitions is to living men in and women and not to the dead.

We do not believe that good works make christians, but we do believe that christians love good works, and are trying to walk in them, and are the only class of mankind that know where God dwells ; and this knowledge is given them to make them separate from the world, a peculiar people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, &c., to dwell with the king in eternity. Now these things being hid from the wise and prudent and revealed unto babes, so are all God’s works. For if this gospel be hid it is hid to them that are lost shows in the past, by saying them that are lost, not a word of promise to save on conditions. God, who dwells in Zion is not a conditional God ; we are glad he is not ; for if man in his dead state has to move the great work of salvation on his part, then Christ’s blood on the cross, his sufferings, his death and resurrection is not sufficient to save his people from their sins, and the devil may get some of these loved ones, such as he says I have loved thee with an everlasting love, &c. We feel safe in saying, Israel’s God is not mistaken in this matter. The kings of this earth may fail in their undertakings ; but it is not weak to say, God has provided means to save all the wicked race of man ; and then those means have been insufficient to accomplish the end that was intended by the king of the whole earth. Some one is disappointed.

My dear brethren, we feel sure that Baptists will not say that Israel’s God is the disappointed party.

Dear brethren, sisters and friends, we have asked some very important questions, as to our duty while sojourning here, and we will close by saying : May the great king of Zion keep us from the evils of this world, and save us for the Redeemer’s sake.

A. P. LEACH.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

DEAR BRETHREN, SISTERS AND FRIENDS: You will be looking for something in the shape of a letter, and as I am the one that was appointed to write, I will try in much weakness to comply. Having a true knowledge of my inability and incompetency, I know that I cannot write anything that would be profitable to the saints of the Most High God, nor to the approbation of his Son Jesus Christ, unless guided and directed by Him that has given every good and perfect gift that poor mortal men have ever received. My mind seems to be on the goodness of God toward his people. I will try to follow my mind. David said on a certain occasion, Is there not a cause? I hope there is a just cause why we are made to differ from all professions of religion in the doctrine of God our Saviour, which doctrine is Election, Predestination and Eternal Preservation of every member of the elect family of God. If this poor scribbler is not deceived in the date—1876—I was enabled to see Jesus Christ with an eye of faith, and dwell in his presenee in peace. From the date 1871 to 1876 I shall never be able to tell my troubles. I was like David—the sorrows of death compassed me, the pains of hell got hold on me. I found travail and sorrow. Thanks be to God, He delivered my soul from the lowest hell, for which I hope to thank and praise Him all my life, and praise Him in eternity after death. He also showed unto me that straight and narrow way that leadeth unto life, that few are to find. If not deceived, I want to say with all candor and good wishes toward men, and in the presence of a just and holy God, that no law that man can keep, nor deeds that he can do, nor work that he can perform, or new plans, will ever justify them before a just and holy God. By the deeds of the law no flesh can be justified in the sight of God. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, or can do, but by His merey hath he saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost. It seems to me that every child of God will own that God has all power in heaven and earth, and each one is willing to give Him all the glory and honor, power and dominion. Jesus learned obedience by the things He suffered. The promise to national Israel was if they were willing and obedient they should eat the good of the land. If they rebelled they were to be devoured by the sword, and it holds good unto this day to spiritual Israel. National Israel was destroyed by the sword of his enemies. The peace of spiritual Israel will be destroyed by the sword of God's justice. I feel to say right here that the Baptists are the only denomination that can establish their doctrine by the truth of the Bible. I feel to say God showed me where His church was in the date above mentioned. We are not only commanded to be obedient, but to love each other, and bear each other's burdens. I am aware we are not doing these things as we should. There are some Baptists who seldom go to their church meetings. The cause I know not. They never help their pastor. They never help a traveling minister on his way. The church of God is built of lively stones. These members may need disciplining. We have strayed from the law of God like lost sheep. I want to see the Baptists a united people in everything that pertains to the Kingdom of God. I hope to see the day when they will unite on the subject of washing feet. While we differ from all denominations of religion, it seems we ought to agree with each other. We sometimes talk about each other, and say hard things. These things ought not to be. If we bite and devour each other, how dwelleth the love of God in us? It is written, Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. He that taketh not up his cross and followeth not after me is not worthy of me. Let us mind to not say Peace, Peace, when there is no peace. This is very easy to do. It is manifest that the so-called churches are drifting back to Popery. They will unite together against the truth. I am looking for a great persecution against the church in the near future, for he that liveth godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. I am not afraid to say the Baptists are the only people that preach the apostolic doctrine. They are the only people that preach infant salvation, and deny works being any cause of their eternal justification, and if we are persecuted for righteousness' sake it will only increase our hope in Christ, and make us long for the glorious appearing of the great God who gave us to Christ before time, and he redeemed us in time, and to-day is making intercessions for us. I have written as my mind directed me, in a very scattering way.

Your little brother in hope of eternal life,

I. P. BEAN.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

TO THE ABBOTT'S CREEK ASSOCIATION OF THE PRIMITIVE FAITH.

DEAR BRETHREN:—At our last Association I was appointed to write a circular letter for our next minutes. I feel incompetent to undertake such a task, fearing that I could not do justice to the cause of Christ. I would love to write something that would edify the brethren and sisters, but I fear I will make a failure; but nevertheless I will follow the trend of my mind and do what I do in obedience to God if not deceived.

I once thought I would love to tell the brethren and sisters my experience—if I have any, in a circular letter, but my mind seems to be somewhat changed, perhaps it is right. Brethren, I will call your attention to the minutes of our last Association. You see we are in debt to the Clerk. Brethren, it is our duty to keep up our church expenses at home and at our Associations, as much so as we can. Ten cents from every member of our association, that is able to work, will defray all of our associational expenses and leave us something on hand that we could give to our travelling Ministers to help them on their way. "God loves a cheerful giver." I believe it is the gift of God that we have faith, and this faith produces all the obedient acts that we do.

Jesus promised us a Comforter if he went away, and that Comforter should guide us into all truth. Brethren, how many of us have felt a lash of conscience on account of neglect of duty toward our church and ministers. The Lord sends out his servants to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ and his kingdom, declaring Jesus to be the way, the truth and the life. I believe that our faith teaches us that it is our duty to provide for our ministers, while they are so much help to our drooping minds in time of trouble, by teaching us the way. Brethren, when we neglect this which is our duty, it is not because we are without faith; we are only living after the flesh; and the word says we shall die, and I think some of our people are in a dying condition to-day. It seems that we have some power of our own, but it all used to the neglect of our duty toward God. We may have faith to move mountains, and without charity we become as "sounding brass and tinkling cymbals." All gifts of faith are profitable, but if we fail to exercise that gift of faith we become unprofitable. Some of the brethren may think this looks too much like Arminianism, but I can't help it for I think I know where we are going to if we don't do better this year. Our Clerk cannot afford to take money out of his own pocket and pay for printing minutes for us. I think we will do well to consider this matter for it is our duty. The only way to act faithful towards God, is through obedience. Disobedience is the cause of trouble and conflicts in any way. Brethren, only see how easily we can be lead astray by the vain things of the world: such as false doctrine, pride, story-telling, back-biting &c. We know that this is wrong and we are commanded to refrain from such things. I have not confined myself to any certain subject of scripture. My mind had been confined upon our neglect of duty. I hope this will meet your approval. May the Lord be with his people and this Association and direct us all to do his will, is the prayer of your unworthy brother,

W. H. LAWRENCE.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

DEAR BRETHREN:—By request of the last Association I make the attempt to write a letter for circulation in our minutes, believing it to be a duty that all who can have the mind to write for the comfort of the poor saints, should do so, also hoping that this poor, weak mind may be directed in a way that will not give offence to the saints. My mind is led to a portion of Scripture in Hebrews 13:1: "Let brotherly love continue." This is a small portion of the writings of the Apostle to the Hebrew brethren. I think the admonition is binding on us as professors of the same doctrine that was taught by the Apostles. It is said that this letter was written by Timothy; if so, is it part of the part of the Scriptures? Brethren, we must admit that this is part of the given Word and should be obeyed. The words from an inspired writer, small as it seems to be, should be considered. Dear brethren, let us for one moment think of our deliverance from nature's night. Did we love the brethren then? Now how is it? Does love continue? This is what I think the writer of this subject means; that we should think, act and show by so doing that we are brethren. Oh brethren, what a loving expression, "brotherly love." Let me say that little children show that they love one another. See them playing (I mean little ones) and one gets hurt, how distressed the little crowd are. Oh brethren, do you see little ones to-day in Zion's walls (I mean the church) that are lame, halt or blind, some by their own faults, and some by persecution; but they are brethren. Are we all so forgetful that we have no love for them. Are we so hard-hearted that we cannot go to them and tell them of their faults, considering ourselves lest we be tempted. "Let brotherly love continue." There is something called love that we are told to let continue. Now the question may arise, how are we to let this continue? We, as the Hebrews, are a people professing to love the Lord. Let me ask one and all of us, do we prove by our actions that we love the Lord? If so, then the promise is to us. All things work together for good to them that love the Lord, and are called according to His purpose. Let me say there is a number of things loved by the human family; but this is love spoken of, love of brethren that we may not be mistaken about the character of this love: for it works no ill to a neighbor, much less to a brother. Now, brethren, we have sight, if we are the called, to claim the Lord as great Shepherd, King and Priest; one that for love gave us Himself to suffer for our sins. O how humble we should be when we think His arm is under us. And how we should pity those who say this King of Kings will see some of His loved ones go down to eternal despair, that His arm is too short or His blood is not sufficient to save the objects of His love without the help of poor sinners. What folly!

In conclusion, let me say my beloved brethren and sisters, as we are compassed by a cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and sin that we may run our race with patience, feeling sure that we are living in the evening of this world, and that we must have grace given us to overcome the evils that surround us, and the promise is to them that walk uprightly. May the Lord grant that brotherly love may continue.

A. P. LEACH.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

To the Ministers and Messengers Composing the Abbotts Creek Association, of the Primitive Baptist Church:

Dear Brethren—Many of you are aware of the fact that I was appointed at the last session of this honorable body to write what is termed a circular letter. Oh! how I was filled with fear and trembling, so much that I could not render an excuse. While meditating upon the vastness of its importance, these thoughts settled steadfast in my mind, "If this action of the association is of the Lord, it will have the desired effect, if not of the Lord, it will do no good, but will be a stain upon her, and a blot upon the one who makes the attempt, through the power of his own wisdom and righteousness. With these thoughts as a preliminary, I will, with God's help present to your minds some beautiful figures in types as shadowing forth in the language of the wise man in his beautiful song in the fourth chapter and twelfth verse, it is recorded "A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed."

This to my mind represents the fountain that was opened in the house of King David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness. How wonderful is the construction of that garden, in it a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. We will here make an illustration. It is unlawful for any person to break a seal, except the person to whom it is directed. It is so in reference to our mails. Even the carrier is not allowed to open a sealed package. He may handle all the sealed packages and handle carefully the name and address, in discharge of his official duty. If he goes beyond his duty in opening the seal it makes him an offender, and he is liable to be punished by the law which protects him in doing his duty. This sets forth the duties of those who are enclosed in the garden of God's grace. And to them only is it given to open the seal, which has already been opened. Then they are commanded to open the doors of their hearts and let the king of glory come in. To such, God has given this seal. He knoweth them that are his and when the knowledge of this seal is given, then to believe that God for Christ's sake has pardoned their sins; to such he gives the waer of that fountain sealed. Yes, sealed to them through the blood of the everlasting covenant, which is ordered in all thing. And sure they set this seal upon their heart that God is true and every man a liar. That is, all men who are born of woman are conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity, and go forth from the womb speaking lies. All such as are described in holy writ, as speaking the language of their father, who was a liar from the beginning and abode not in the truth, has no right to take the privilege of claiming the power to drink of that spring that is shut up, of the fountain sealed.

Now, having set forth the condition of all men in nature, this condition by reason of sin power debars them of the privilege of even a desire to drink of such a fountain. And men in the bonds of sin are bound slaves to it. Such is the condition of all the human family born into this world. Now let us see if this excludes forever the possibility of one and all of partaking of a single sip of this spring of living water. No, thank God a remedy was prepared by the eternal mind of him who said, "I will do all my pleasures, my council shall stand." It was the pleasure of the mind of wisdom to prepare a remedy and a sure cure for such a horrible disease as sin, which has been inflicted upon all men. This glorious remedy was promised to the mother of all living, that thy seed shall bruise the serpent's head. and that blessed seed undoubtedly is Jesus, who was born of a woman, born under the law to redeem them who were under the law. In this seed of the woman, all the seed have access to the spring shut up, to this fountain sealed. All and every one of them being vessels of mercy afore prepared unto glory, all of those vessels of mercy have access to the inclosed garden, to the spring shut up, to the fountain sealed. Let us consider for a moment the security of all who are enclosed in this glorious garden. What is it enclosed with? I will emphatically declare it is the life of God. His wonderful garden occupied by the family of a great king, must of necessity be born of that king, consequently born in this delightful garden of their father, which is of his own individual make up. No power was consulted no agent employed, not even the wisdom of the holy angels was sought, but all things were made ready by the holy king and the king's son, to bid the subjects of grace to come in to his garden. And the language is this "I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honey comb with my honey. I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat O friends! Drink yea drink abundantly, beloved is the language of the builder and maker of this garden which is, "whosoever will let him drink of the water of life freely and whosoever shall drink of the water that I shall give, it shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.' ' This fountain was opened upon Mount Cavalry, when they pierced his hands and his feet. Then and there flowed the crimson tide that chrystalized this glorious fountain of water, which was hitherto sealed. And what was the great cost to the owners of this garden, for the sake of the occupants of it and its inhabitants? In another garden, not this one, but surely an entrance into this enclosure his sweat became as great drops of blood, falling down to the ground, calling for these pathetic words. "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even unto death." and in his own language recorded by the prophet, "Was there ever sorrow liken unto my sorrow?" Oh! my brethren have not your sorrows been stirred up for him who bore all your sorrows. Who drank the contents of the bitter cup of death to its very dregs that you might live? Now brethren pray for the peace of Jerusalem for they shall prosper who love peace. May it reign supremely within thy walls and prosperity within thy palaces.

A. M. WILLIAMS.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

The time for our association is drawing near, and a letter is expected to be printed in our minute. As I am appointed to write one, I will now make the effort, not knowing what to write. But it is the desire of my heart to write what is acceptable unto the Lord, and comforting to His people.

I have no particular subject, though the Scriptures are abundantly, and full and free, and so strong in favor of the primitive church of Christ that the enemy has no ground at all to build upon. Yet he claims ground in his blind zeal, and strives to get the upper hand of all Christ's servants. So Christ commanded His children to watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

Dear people of God, we are living in a time of great distress of coldness in the churches, and trouble in the land of war and bloodshed, and it has not come without a cause. The nations had become too highly exalted, and we are coming down to poverty, and I fear the children of God have failed to keep the precepts and examples of Jesus Christ as He has laid them down and have, therefore, become cold, weak and faint; and the greatest remedy I know is to humble ourselves down to the very dust, if possible, before the great Judge of all the earth and confess all our sins to Him and beg for mercy. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from unrighteousness. See 1 John i. 9.

Let us never forget to study our Bible prayerfully, and pray fervently in secret. Daniel prayed three times a day to the Great God of heaven and came safely through the lion's den. David left on Holy Record that he prayed three times a day. At midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises unto God, and the prisoners heard them and immediately the prison house was shaken, the doors were all opened, and everyones' hands were loosed, and the keeper of the prison was converted or saved and all his house. This is one of the many displays of God's mighty power, and we love to write of His doings.

He is the same God of all power now and forever, and He is in heaven and is happy there within, and of His own self needs nothing that poor sinful man can do or give. Yet He says in all His glory that He delighteth in the man that feareth His name and trembleth at His word. Precious words indeed to the poor and needy.

Well, I will close my few scattering remarks by asking the dear brethren of the Abbott's Creek Association to accept the above if in accord with the Holy Word of God, and if not, pardon error and make any changes necessary.

Your unworthy servant, A. M. SURRATT

CIRCULAR LETTER.

Steeds, N. C., August 19, 1919.
To the Dearly Beloved and Highly Esteemed and Precious Brethren that May Be Blessed with the Privilege of Meeting Together in an Associational Capacity:

It fills my poor soul with joy when I think of so many of the dear brethren going up to the house of our dear Lord and Master there to worship the true God that made all things, and there was nothing made without Him. I do feel to thank our God for the bringing in of so many of the precious and dear children and assembling them together. Oh, how beautiful is the sight when you are all assembled together, and the Almighty God sends His angel that John saw flying in the midst of heaven and having the everlasting gospel to preach to men on earth when the angel delivers this gospel by some of our gifted brethren, when it reaches the hearts of these dear people that God has set apart for Himself and love begins to flow from breast to breast, oh, brethren, how beautiful and lovely is the sight, when God's people from all parts of the nation sit down together and not a stranger in all the house. They are all taught of the Lord, therefore they all see eye to eye, and speak the same language, and all understand each other, and a stranger they will not hear.

Jesus is the good shepherd. He leadeth his sheep whithersoever he will. He also told his disciples that if they loved him they would keep his commandments. Now, dear brethren, I as one that loves the church above all things on earth, feel to admonish you all and myself to study to follow Jesus. First, do unto others as we would have them do to us, and love our neighbor as ourselves. I would advise the children to obey their parents, and above all, brethren, live before your children as you want them to live. That is the way to train them in the way they should go. Study to show the way of Jesus, that is, the highway the old prophet spoke of. Now, brethren, remember that no unclean thing can be on that highway. Oh, how careful ought we to live.

Now, brethren, we know that no weapon that is formed against thee can destroy Christ's church that He built here, not even the gates of hell can prevail against it. But we will do well to remember that Jesus is the way unto life, which if we enjoy he is the way and that highway, and if we are on that highway, that straight and narrow way, we should earnestly strive to enter in at the straight gate. Now, dear children of God, we will do well to remember that we can't serve God and serve Satan at the same time. We cannot practice and associate with the wicked and inhabit the dens of sin and vice set up to entice and lead astray the young child of our God. Remember that Jesus did not associate with or receive spots on his character by mingling with or being caught in these dens of vice and shame, but He taught us to keep ourselves unspotted from the world. Let us keep ourselves clean and live in honor to our Lord and Master. For great is His name and mighty is His power, and His mercy endureth forever. He doeth His will and none can hinder Him. He hath blessed us all the days of our lives. Finally, my brethren, remember that our dear Lord and Master commanded us to love one another. I pray the Lord to lead, guide and direct us on that highway and keep us from all harm and teach us to fulfill His command. I do beg you to pray for me. Pray the good Lord to be with me in my last days that I may be held up by His mighty power that I may live in honor to Him.

Finally, brethren, farewell. My prayer is that God's will be done and to Him be all the glory and honor. Amen.

Written by one of the least of you good brethren, if one at all,
IRA FREEMAN.

CIRCULAR LETTER

Spies, N. C., July 25, 1920.

Dear Brethren, Ministers and Messengers, who may compose the ninety-fifth session of the Abbots Creek Association which was appointed to be held with the church at Tom's Creek, Davidson county, N. C., together with many brethren and sisters in relation with and according to the love and purpose of God through Christ.

When I was appointed by the association of last year to write a circular letter for our minutes of this session, August, 1920, it shocked me so I could not render an excuse, feeling I was so short in comprehending the deep mysteries of the Scriptures.

This scripture which I will use came on my mind shortly after I was appointed to write this letter. It will be found in Second Peter, third chapter and eleventh verse: "What manner of persons ought ye to be." This is, I understand, to the child of God, one who has put on Christ with an open profession, and gone home to his friends, the church, not to tell what he has done for the Lord, but what the Lord has done for him, if we believe that the sinner before he is changed is dead in sin and condemnation and can not come out within himself and we go to the church telling our little hope, that God for Christ sake has pardoned our sins. "What manner of person ought ye to be." This scripture as I understand has reference to how the child of God should act, walk and talk.

I remember before I joined the church I would go to meeting and while waiting for the preacher, the brethren would talk to one another on spiritual things and when the preacher would drive up, the brethren would go out to meet him and shake each other's hand.

Now brethren let us keep in memory what one of the old writes commands was, calling for the old paths. speak often to one another, forget not the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is.

Brethren let us examine ourselves and see if we are in the faith, if we so find, let us be ever ready to help in anything pertaining to the church militant. If we hear the Armenian world speaking against the doctrine of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, speak out brethren, don't be ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto Salvation to every one that believe.

Preaching of the gospel is not as the world says, to save dead sinners if they will accept the terms of the gospel; but to save them that has been killed to the love of sin who in time past drank sin down as a greedy ox drinketh water and at a time unexpected to him God visits him and turned him right about, then belief set in. This is the only way a man comes in possession of the belief and when God calls and qualifies a man and sends him forth with a message and he comes loaded with the good things from a far country, this man is ready to receive it.

We read in the scriptures that there are false teachers in the world so we should be careful how we follow even a gifted and qualified minister of the gospel of Christ, for all are subject to vanity and are liable at any time to drift into covetousness and idolatry.

Finally, brethren, farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind. Live in peace, and the God of love shall be with you. The grace of our Lord and Saviour, and the love and communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Amen.

H. T. TUCKER.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers composing the Abbot's Creek Association—GREETINGS—:

As I was appointed to write a circular letter by our last association, I will try in my weak way, hoping that the Lord will take the lead of my mind. First Cor. 1:30, "But of Him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God made unto us wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption."

Seeing then that the children of God are made free by Jesus Christ, through His atoning blood, which was shed for them on Mount Calvary, which is alone the only redemption for poor sinners.

It was for the love that the Father had for the Bride—that He sent His son to redeem her from the law of sin and death that He might present her a glorious church without spot or wrinkle, and without the loss of one.

I am so often brought down in serious meditation of mind as to whether I am embraced in that number or not that Jesus died for.

And again my spirit revives and I am made for a moment to say with the Apostle Paul, "that if this earthly house of mine were dissolved I have a building not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

Dear Brethren, if we are what we profess to be, what manner of creatures ought we to be?

Let us lay aside all evil speaking, all envy, and all strife, looking over each other for good, and not for evil, bearing each others burdens, and forgive each other.

May the God of all grace and peace and love guide you all in wisdom ways, in all your business in this association, in hope of eternal rest beyond the grave.

Your Brother,

H. S. WILLIAMS.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

Salisbury, N. C., August 24, 1927.

To the members and messengers who may compose the Abbotts Creek Association to convene with the church at Pine Meeting House, Davidson County, N. C.

GREETINGS:—Being appointed by our precious brethren at the last session of this association, to write a circular letter, I now make the attempt. I wish to speak of the things most assuredly believed by our brethren. By this I mean the churches composing this association. As I have spent my time in the ministry with them I feel like I know what they believe. Having done all to stand, they now stand and earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the Saints. We believe that salvation is of the Lord, and that man in his carnal state cannot worship God, and while in the flesh cannot please God, but loves darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil. Therefore every step that man takes and every deed that he does when prompted or influenced by the flesh is evil, and his thoughts are evil continually, for the heart in man is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. While in this state or condition he is under the influence of that satanic power which the scripture refers to as the strong man. He keeps his palace and his goods are in peace until a stronger than he comes. Here then is a manifestation of salvation and it is of the Lord, for God is greater than all and binds all whether they be dominions, powers, principalities or thrones. God is above all. We believe in the electing grace of God and that God made choice of the bride and hath chosen her in Him (Christ) before the foundation of the world that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love and that God is the father of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and that He blesses us with all Spiritual blessings in Heavenly places in Christ. We believe that God forms in his people Christ the hope of glory, and they are then made alive by Christ, the Lord from heaven a quickening spirit, and can by the quickening spirit of Christ, which dwells in them, praise His great and good name for what He has done for them. And being led by the spirit of Christ they can tell an experience of grace, and can bring forth fruits and meats worthy of repentance and do not have to say, we have Abraham to our father, for God is our Father, and Jesus, His Son, is our Savior, and we are made to sit in heavenly places in Christ. We also believe that God predestinated that His people should be conformed to the image of His Son. The word absolute is not needed to make God's predestination sure, and we are glad that not one of our preaching brethren in our association tries to connect the word Absolute with the predestination of God. We believe that what Jesus does for us saves us, that God beholds us through the sufferings of His Son, and that He satisfied the law that stood against His Bride, by the sacrifice of Himself. He was owned from heaven, by God, in a voice saying, this is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.

We do not believe that God wills the death of the wicked, but that He does will the life of the righteous, for Christ is made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption. He is everything we need here in time. He is what we need when we come to press a dying pillow. He is what we need when He shall descend from Heaven with the voice of The Arc angle and is all we need when at the dazzling throne of God, there to praise God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost forever, Amen.

Your Brother in this Hope.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers, messengers and members who may compose the 104th session of Abbotts Creek Primitive Baptist Association to convene with the church at Cotton Creek on Saturday before the 4th Sunday in August, 1929:

Having been appointed to write a circular letter, it is with a full knowledge of my weakness and ability to explain the mysteries of the Scriptures that I write.

Brethren, I must talk to you of what my experience teaches me, for that is all I know of spiritual things (if indeed I know anything spiritually). "The wisdom of the world is foolishness with God." Cain's offering was not acceptable to God because it was an earthly offering.

"Those who worship must worship in spirit and in truth". God gives the Spirit to worship and the poor sinner is stripped of every false idea when he worships God.

Every burden is removed and the sins that so easily beset us, and we run the race with patience, trusting in God, rejoicing, shedding the tears of joy. Oh! that these seasons would continue, but God knows best. He chastens all his children. The autumn winds must blow, the leaves and flowers fade, for this is a journey through the wilderness.

"All his children shall be taught of the Lord". Taught that Christ is their savior, the one and only salvation for Time and Eternity. There are no two salvations.

Jonah said "Salvation is of the Lord". Jonah spake these words after he had suffered many afflictions, and this is the way we learn the truths of spiritual matters. David prayed that God would restore to him the Joys of his salvation. David was a man after God's own heart, but he did not have control of a salvation to release him from his troubles but was just as dependent on God to deliver as at His first deliverance. God delivers us from our troubles at His own good time, but we often wonder that we are thus cast about and sometimes become weary and nearly faint. But when we are permitted to see Him through the lattice, then we rejoice and believe we are on our journey to the Celestial City.

"Thy people shall be a willing people in the day of thy power." His power shows them their sinful ways, their helpless condition, their vile nature, their condemnation for sin. Then they become willing to say "God be merciful to me a sinner." Yes willing to plead with God for mercy; to part with worldly pleasures; to suffer afflictions with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of Sin for a Season.

Paul says when he would do good evil is present. He gave advice to the churches of Asia and instructed his son, Timothy, in the Gospel as to his conduct in the ministry, but denied that any of this wisdom came from his education at the feet of Gamaliel. We are living today in the most enlightened age of all time, from a literary standpoint, but in religious matters darkness covers the face of the earth. More fallacies and doctrines of men are taught than at any time in history. Christ is dishonored; his virgin birth denied. But the God who parted the Red Sea and delivered the children of Israel out of Egyptian bondage is still delivering and will deliver the last one of his elect. This is a part and parcel of the covenant that the Father made with the Son before this earth was fashioned.

At the final consummation of all things he will call his people from the North and from the South, from the East and from the West to the Land of Promise, to the Celestial City, the Home of the Elect.

"Oh! Happy day when saints shall meet
To part no more the thought is sweet."

The last promise to His people will be fulfilled when they enter the portals of Heaven and with a triumphant shout shall say "Oh! Death, Where is thy sting? Oh! Grave, Where is thy victory?" "Come in ye blessed of my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you before the foundation of the world". Prepared by the atoning blood of Christ shed on Mt. Calvary. This is all the preparation that has ever been made to save poor sinners. This is the Highway and no ravenous beast can enter there, but the Redeemed of the Lord shall travel this way when they come to Zion with songs of everlasting Joy. We are told that those who travel this way obtain gladness and that sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Have we not all experienced this?

We are admonished not to neglect the assembling of ourselves together. I believe it is our duty to meet together, not only to hear preaching but to talk of His mercies, His loving kindness in the forgiveness of Sins and to speak of the Kingdom that is not of this world. This will strengthen us in our faith. "When thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." When we relate our experience we become witnesses to each other that we have received the same blessings in like manner; that we have traveled that Highway of Holiness, known only to the people of God, wherein is Peace and Everlasting Life. He tells us to walk in newness of life, show our faith by our works, be instant in season, out of season rebuke and reprove. These admonitions are to those who have been redeemed from sin and death.

Yours in hope,

Denton, N. C., Box 102

17. The Moderator and Clerk were appointed to distribute $22.00 among the visiting ministers.

18. Agreed that our next year's association be held with the church at Flat Creek, in Rowan County, N. C., to commence on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in August, 1933. It was agreed that the Clerk, T. R. Freeman, and the messengers of Flat Creek Church choose an Elder at that time to preach the introductory sermon.

23. A motion was unanimous to declare nonfellowship with H. S. Williams, which charges have become public, and the said charges have been sent to the Clerk of the church of his membership, and he failing to follow the commandment of the scriptures to lay down his gift and the church of his membership failing to investigate these said charges. White Oak Springs Church in their regular conference on July 16, 1932, closed their doors against said Elder H. S. Williams and the church of his membership, and those who follow him in his disorder. That the Church of White Oak Springs also in the same conference forbade him to deliberate in the church or on the grounds. That in defiance of the act of White Oak Springs Church during this session of the Association he and his followers forcibly took possession of White Oak Springs church building, thereby forcing the membership of White Oak Springs Church to appeal to a judge of the Superior Court for relief, the Judge of the Superior Court granting the injunction forbidding him and his followers to use the church and its grounds before we could hold this session of our Association in peace. Therefore, be it resolved that we the Abbotts Creek Union Association do hereby unanimously sustain the White Oak Springs Church in their action against Elder H. S. Williams and his followers, and we also declare nonfellowship for Elder H. S. Williams and his followers until they set themselves in order.

24. The Association extends thanks to God for his blessings, and to the brethren and sisters and friends of this community for their hospitality and kindness during this meeting.

25. After the minutes were read and approved the Association adjourned to time and place appointed, and then went to the stand where the meeting was dismissed by Elder D. P. Broadway.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers Who May Compose the 120th Session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association—Greetings:

Dear Brethren:

Having been appointed to write the circular letter for next year, and not knowing the purpose of a circular letter, how to begin, or what to write, I hope God will direct my mind, and enable me to write something beneficial, or at least something that will not offend, for we find in Matt. 18:6, "But who-so shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depths of the sea."

At the Association it impressed me and made me rejoice to see such brotherly love and peace manifested, and also sad to think in what contrast this is, to the terrible conflict which is raging on foreign soils. I believe we should look unto God Who, according to Isa. 45:7, "makes peace."

In the 26th chapter of Leviticus we are promised that if we walk in His Statutes and keep His commandments that, "He will give peace in the land," and again in Proverbs, "When a man's ways please the Lord He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him."

We are exhorted many times in the Bible to maintain peace. "Seek peace and pursue it," for according to Paul, "God hath called us to peace." We highly commend our beloved ministers who continually strive for peace and good fellowship, "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace," for "the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace"; and Brethren, your reward is great. "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Christ said just before leaving this world, "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth." Paul said, "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace," Rom. 14:19, "And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Brethren, when we receive peace from Him Who is the "very God of Peace," "and let the peace of God rule in our hearts," there is no room for malice, wrath, envy, or trouble hunting, and there will never be trouble among our churches. "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another."

It is my prayer that, "the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:7.

Humbly submitted in love, J. ASHBURN WILLIAMS.

CIRCULAR LETTER

As I was appointed to write a circular letter for this session of the Abbott's Creek Association, and as I have been in so much trouble the past year, having lost my dear companion August 12, 1945, I really did not think of writing a circular letter.

I hope the brethren and sisters will forgive me, and understand my great trouble and distress.

I have selected a letter written by Brother J. W. Williams, of Pine Church, to be reprinted, if it meets the approval of the association, and I promise to, and will write one for the next association, if the association so desires.

I desire the prayers of my brethren and sisters, and I hope to meet you all many times in an associated capacity and I do pray the Lord to keep us in the WAY of peace, love, and fellowship.

C. B. OWEN, Clerk of Salisbury Church.

To the Ministers and Messengers that compose the 119h Session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association, Greetings:

Dear Brethren:

As I was appointed by the brethren to write the circular letter, I will now make the attempt. I feel like any one else would have been better suited than I, but if God will direct my mind I will make an effort.

I have been meditating on what the circular letter was intended for and after some thought, I came to this conclusion: That it is to let our correspondents and those from afar know that we are in peace with one another and that love and fellowship abounds throughout our association, and that we are standing steadfast as we hope in the faith that was once delivered to the Saints.

I hope to live to see the time when all orderly Primitive Baptist Churches come together in an Association to sing, pray, and preach together. I am glad to say that all of our churches are in peace and fellowship with each other.

We do appreciate our visitors from sister Associations. We need your prayer, your love, fellowship and your advice. When we see the love of Jesus in that humble person we know there is no harm. Let us strive for peace among us. Always look to one another for good and not evil. If we are looking for faults we will surely find them, especially this poor sinner, for I am full of sin..

We often hear our brethren speak of their unworthiness, that they do not feel worthy. This feeling of our unworthiness is what keeps the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. We then can walk together because we are agreed. Our spirits bearing witness with your spirits that we are the children of God. For if we walk in the light as He is in the light we have fellowship one with another and the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin.

So dear brethren, this is a wonderful vocation with which we hope to be called, and may the God of all grace for Jesus sake grant unto His dear people everywhere the spirit of loveliness and forbearance in love, and may we as a little portion of His moral vineyard in hope ever be found. By His all sufficient grace and endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace

Your unworthy servant, J. W. WILLIAMS.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers, and all who compose the 122nd session of the Abbott's Creek Association—GREETINGS:

I was chosen at our last meeting to write a circular letter for this session. There has been much said about what a circular letter is for; I think it is a letter that bears the same message to a group of people. I never felt more unqualified for the task. I hope the Lord will bless my undertaking.

Brethren, our Association is in a very peaceful condition. This meeting is not one to be dreaded for fear of confusion, but one that we have been looking forward to with our minds set on meeting our brethren and sisters from the different parts of the state. We appreciate the presence of our visitors, especially the ministers and we hope they have come laden with the true gospel which does not divide the flock. All of our correspondents know what we believe; also our enemies know what we believe and practice. Brethren, the greatest peace move among Primitive Baptists who are in disorder would be church discipline. The ministers should be disciplined when necessary. In my opinion some churches have made mistakes in ordaining Licentiates, when only one or two request their ordination. I still believe in the Scripture that reads, "Lay hands suddenly on no man." Much trouble could be avoided by waiting until the church of their membership call a presbytery. They should be men who are well acquainted with the one to be ordained, and they should act on their own judgment as to the qualification. I am writing from experience, which is the best teacher. Brethren our duty does not end when our name is entered on the church book, but has just begun. Don't let anything keep you from attending your church meetings, except sickness or death. We are judged by our fruits, and some of the fruits are regular attendance, help to take care of the expenses of the church. Don't wait to be begged for a donation. Don't become a dead limb in the tree. The church might awake to its duty and do some trimming. The more one stays away from the church, the less he cares for the church. Don't forget this. It takes live members to make a live church. Don't stay away from your church until you forget the smell of pomegranates, and the sound of golden bells. Don't be one that shakes hands with their pastor and tell him you enjoyed his sermon; other professions do that well, go one better than they. Prove your faith by your works, where there is little sacrifice, there is but little gained. Lord help us to know Thy will, and give us a will to perform it.

We appreciate all who come to our association. They had to make a sacrifice and we hope they will not regret it. May the Lord care for their loved ones who stayed at home bearing the burdens while they are here serving the Lord as well as us. We hope to show our appreciation for their visit with us and we know you had to make a sacrifice to be here. We have invited good sound ministry and we want them to feel free to express their views in the light of the Gospel. I might add here that we have no grindstones here, so if one comes with an axe to grind we cannot accommodate him. We still stand on this firm foundation, that every church is a sovereign body, and that the association is not a supreme court.

Brethren, we love peace and invite all peace loving Baptists to visit us when you can. Our ministers should visit sister associations if we expect to have them visit us. We are not perfect and liable to make mistakes, but we stand ready to right our wrongs and make amends for them.

If this letter is received it will be for love for the cause, and pity for the writer. May the Lord bless you all with peace and love for and with each other. Your brother in a sweet hope.

C. B. OWEN.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers, Messengers and every one that compose the 123d session of the Abbott's Creek Association:
Greetings:—

I was chosen at our last session to write a circular letter for this session.

I have felt, and do yet feel, too unworthy to undertake a task like this, since it is my first time to be called on to write a circular letter.

I hope the Lord will bless my undertaking.

Our association is in peace, and I do thank the Lord for it from the depth of my heart. We feel that it is our duty to go to our sister associations, to mingle our voices with them in songs and prayer.

We do love to have our brethren come from the different parts of the country and preach at our association.

We love for our brethren and sisters to meet with us in our home churches. They are welcome as long as they come in peace and fellowship.

When they come in the name of the Lord, there can be no trouble.

I have been asked by some people what an association is. It is a group of people gathered together to hear the gospel preached and to be fed with manna from heaven.

We do invite visiting ministers to attend our meetings at
is. It is a group of people gathered together to hear the gospel so that they will not return void.

Brethren, do not stay at home and become as a faulty apple on the tree, as you know they fall before they get ripe, therefore they are no good, the same way with members of the church that seldom go to church. So do not stay away and be a faulty apple.

I am a little brother in hope, if one at all.

C. A. LIVENGOOD.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers, Messengers and Brethren Who Compose The Abbott's Creek Primitive Baptist Association:

As I was appointed last year to write the Circular letter, I now make the attempt. Trusting I hope in the Blessed Lord to direct my thoughts. I so kindly feel my weakness and inability to write.

For several days the poem or song "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord" has been on my mind. This song expresses my feelings toward the church better than I can express them myself. I have a hope in my breast that I do love the Church and have a desire to be at the feet of my brethren as I feel each one to be so much better than I, we should put forth every effort possible to look over our brethren for good and not for evil and show by our acts that we do love the Kingdom, the house to worship God in spirit and in truth, for there is no greater Kingdom on earth than the church. When we can be in sweet communion with our brethren we can forget the trials and heartaches of the life when we meet in our association and our regular church meetings there would be no confession and we could rejoice in a Savior's love.

I greatly enjoy having our brethren visit us in our church meetings and the association and truly hope this meeting will prove a blessing to us all and all who meet with us can give God the glory and say it is good to be here.

May we be blessed with the spirit of the Lord to stand firm on the true principles of this great Kingdom ever trusting the Lord to direct our footsteps. Truly hoping these few remarks will not offend any one.

Your Brother in hope.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers, and all who compose the 130th session of the Abbott's Creek Association—GREETINGS:

I was chosen at our last meeting to write a circular letter for this session. There has been much said about what a circular letter is for; I think it is a letter that bears the same message to a group of people. I never felt more unqualified for the task. I hope the Lord will bless my undertaking.

Brethren, our Association is in a very peaceful condition. This meeting is not one to be dreaded for fear of confusion, but one that we have been looking forward to with our minds set on meeting our brethren and sisters from the different parts of the state. We appreciate the presence of our visitors, especially the ministers and we hope they have come laden with the true gospel which does not divide the flock. All of our correspondents know what we believe; also our enemies know what we believe and practice. Brethren, the great peace move among Primitive Baptists who are in disorder would be church discipline. The ministers should be disciplined when necessary. In my opinion some churches have made mistakes in ordaining Licentiates, when only one or two request their ordination. I still believe in the Scripture that reads, "Lay hands suddenly on no man." Much trouble could be avoided by waiting until the church of their membership call a presbytery. They should be men who are well acquainted with the one to be ordained, and they should act on their own judgment as to the qualification. I am writing from experience, which is the best teacher. Brethren our duty does not end when our name is entered on the church book, but has just begun. Don't let anything keep you from attending your church meeting, except sickness or death. We are judged by our fruits, and some of the fruits are regular attendance, help to take care of the expenses of the church. Don't wait to be begged for a donation. Don't become a dead limb in the tree. The church might awake to its duty and do some trimming. The more one stays away from the church, the less he cares for the church. Don't forget this. It takes live members to make a live church. Don't stay away from your church until you forget the smell of pomegranates, and the sound of golden bells. Don't be one that shakes hands with the pastor and tell him you enjoyed his sermon; other professions do that well, go one better than they. Prove your faith by your works, where there is little sacrifice, there is but little gained. Lord help us to know Thy will, and give us a will to perform it.

CIRCULAR LETTER

(Selected from 1949 Minutes)

To the Ministers, Messengers, and everyone that compose the 131st Session of the Abbott's Creek Association:

I do feel that we have had as good an Association as I have ever been in. It is in peace and love and we thank God for that.

Elder D. P. Broadway, the Moderator of this Association, is a man we all love. And I feel that his road has been rough and rocky. But thanks be unto God, he stands firm and for the truth. We beg God to bless him unto the end.

We invite all of you to come to the Abbott's Creek Association as long as you come in peace. You know as long as we feel like going down and washing one another's feet there will be no trouble. But if we get to feeling a little better than the other brother or sister we will cause trouble.

We beg God to guide us in our Association and protect us from all enemies.

I would like to write just a few lines about old Sandy Creek Church I love so well. While I was across the waters in the last war, I wrote my father and mother that I believed someday I would see the church grow in number and there have been nine with myself to join since I have returned.

We have a good pastor, Elder L. G. Cashion. He has been faithful. I have heard him tell of coming to Sandy Creek when there would only be four or five, and last Sunday the church was almost full and we thank God for that.

We invite all you preaching brethren to come to the Association. We love to hear you preach.

May the goodness and mercies of our God be with you all.

I am one of the least if a brother at all.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers and messengers that compose the one hundred thirty-third session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive

Baptist Association, Greeting:

Dear Brethren:—As the brethren appointed me to write a Circular Letter, I will try in my weak way to write one. I feel like anyone else would have been better suited for this than I, but if God will direct my mind, I will make an effort.

The Lord directed the mind of the prophets and apostles to write the scriptures and the Lord is still the same today as He was back in that day, and will be the same God at the last day; because He said in Rev. 22:13, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end." And the fourteenth verse says: "Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Everyone that has a hope in the Lord Jesus Christ, when they received that hope, I believe there was a commandment came with it, and we believe that commandment is to go home to their friends, which is the church, that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gates into the city, which we believe is referred to as the church, for we find in the fifteenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of Revelation: "For without are dogs, sorcerers and whoremongers, and murderers and idolators and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." We know these are not in the church. These belong to the world. Jesus said, I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No man cometh to the Father but by Me.

When we see the love of Jesus in that humble person, we know there is no harm. Let us strive for peace among us, always look on one another for good and not evil. If we are out looking for faults, we will surely find them. Especially this poor sinner, for I am just full of them. I am glad the apostle Paul said in Ephesians 3:18: "Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints is grace given."

Brethren, if you think this worth printing, do so, and if not, just remember I have written according to my feelings. I hope when you are down in the valley of doubts and fears you will remember me and mine.

Submitted with love to all. Yours in humble hope.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Brethren, Sisters and Friends who compose the 134th session of Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association.

It was agreed upon last year that I write the Circular Letter this year. I hardly know where or how to begin, but God being my Guide, I will try.

I would love to speak on Acts 5:12: "And by the hands of the apostles were many sights and wonders wrought among the people: (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch)." The thought I had in mind was that they were all with one accord. We find that according to Webster the word accord means to agree or to be of the same mind. I would like to see all of the Primitive Baptists agree one more time. The fact is they represent something the world can't and never will understand. If you notice in the 13th verse "And of the rest durst no man join himself to them; but the people magnified them." I am made to wonder if we don't try sometimes to get other people to join us for name or for business sake. If we add to the group an unbeliever do we gain in spirit, or in time to come, add confusion? It seems in this case the apostles waited on the Lord to do the adding which he did according to the 14th verse "And believers were the more added to the Lord multitudes both men and women." We know it is impossible for us to make a believer, but don't you think if we would stand as the apostles did—in one mind and with one accord—we could not be hurt by the world?

James 4:7 tell us "Resist the devil and he will flee." How true this is for we know the devil can't stand when Christ appears. Is it true that we have to fall in the hands of the devil, as some men say, to learn, or to be taught these things? I say not. Does the devil live in the soul of man, or in the flesh of God's people? Romans 8:3: "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh." What then, should we walk after the things of the flesh? God forbid! Romans 8:6: "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." May I ask who does the turning, man or God? I am made to believe that sometime I obey the carnal mind, rather than the spiritual mind because of self-pride or to please man. In doing so, I lose the joy of the Spirit. I would, and my prayer to God is that some day by the grace of God, all Old Baptists would turn from the flesh, forgive each other, and be with one accord toward God. Oh, what miracles could be done through them by the grace of God as was done by and through the apostles. If the brethren see fit to print this, all right, if not, just throw it aside. My prayer is that God may bless us to live like men for Christ's sake.

An humble Elder in hope,

—C. E. PICKARD

CONSTITUTION OF THE ABBOTT'S CREEK PRIMITIVE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

1. We believe in one only true and living God, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

4. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own free will and ability.

5. We believe in the doctrine of Election that God chose His people in Christ before the foundation of the earth.

6. We believe that God's elect who are sinners of Adam's fallen family are in His good time effectually called and justified in the sight of God by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ, received by faith alone which faith is productive of good works.

7. We believe that the Saints shall persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

8. We believe baptism by immersion according to the scriptures, and the Lord's Supper are both ordinances of Jesus Christ, and belong to the believers only.

9. We believe in the resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust and in the final judgment.

10. We believe that no minister has a right to the administration of the ordinance but such as are regularly baptized and come under the imposition of hands of the presbytery.

11. We also believe that an association has no right to assume any authority over churches, but only to sit as an advising council, and shall not impose any measures on churches without their knowledge and consent.

RULES OF DECORUM

4. Invite visiting brethren to seats, who shall be entitled to equal privileges with corresponding messengers.

5. Any members in the Association shall have liberty to speak by rising and addressing the Moderator, who shall not be interrupted while speaking unless called to order by the Moderator, or some member, and if called to order may appeal to the Association for their decision for the propriety of the call.

6. No member shall speak more than three times on the same subject without leave of the Association.

7. During the sitting of the Association a respectable decency becoming saints shall be preserved, forbearing to disrespect or interrupt each other while speaking. Proper attention shall be paid to the speaker. All walking about, whispering or talking in time of conference is to be avoided. Members may leave by consent of the Association.

8. It shall be the duty of every member to vote on a question when put except the Moderator who shall vote only when the Association is equally divided, then he shall give the deciding vote.

9. A majority shall decide on all matters which may come before them.

10. No query to be debated except sent from a church or brought in by the committee on arrangements.

11. Each church shall be entitled to three messengers, and the minutes distributed in proportion to the contribution.

12. These rules are subject to alteration or amendments when two-thirds of the Association may think necessary.
